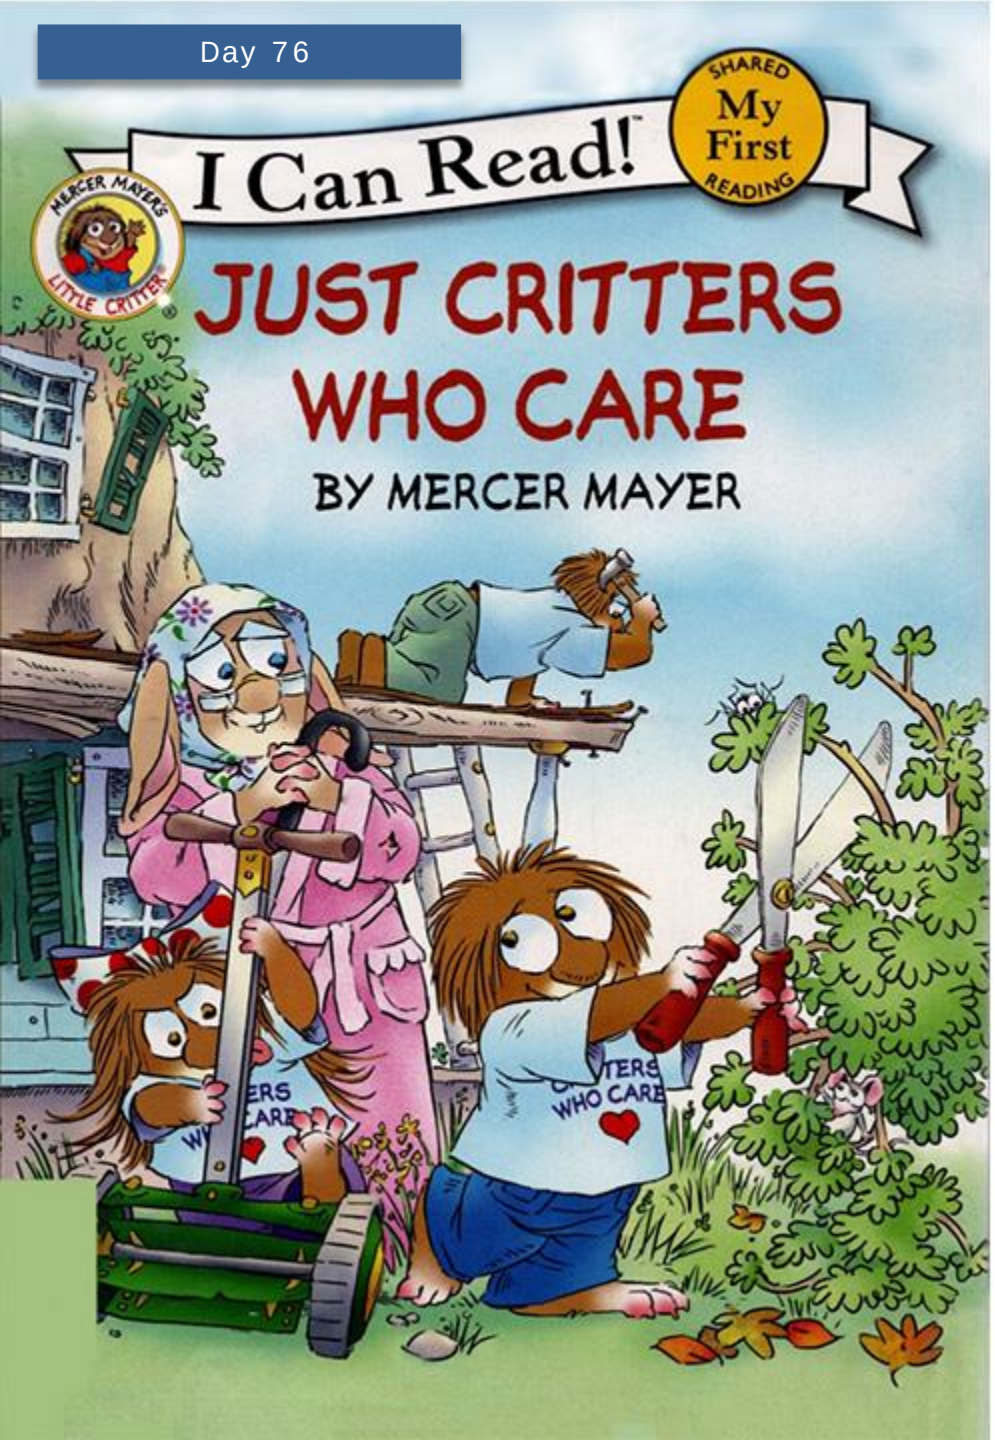
Day 76



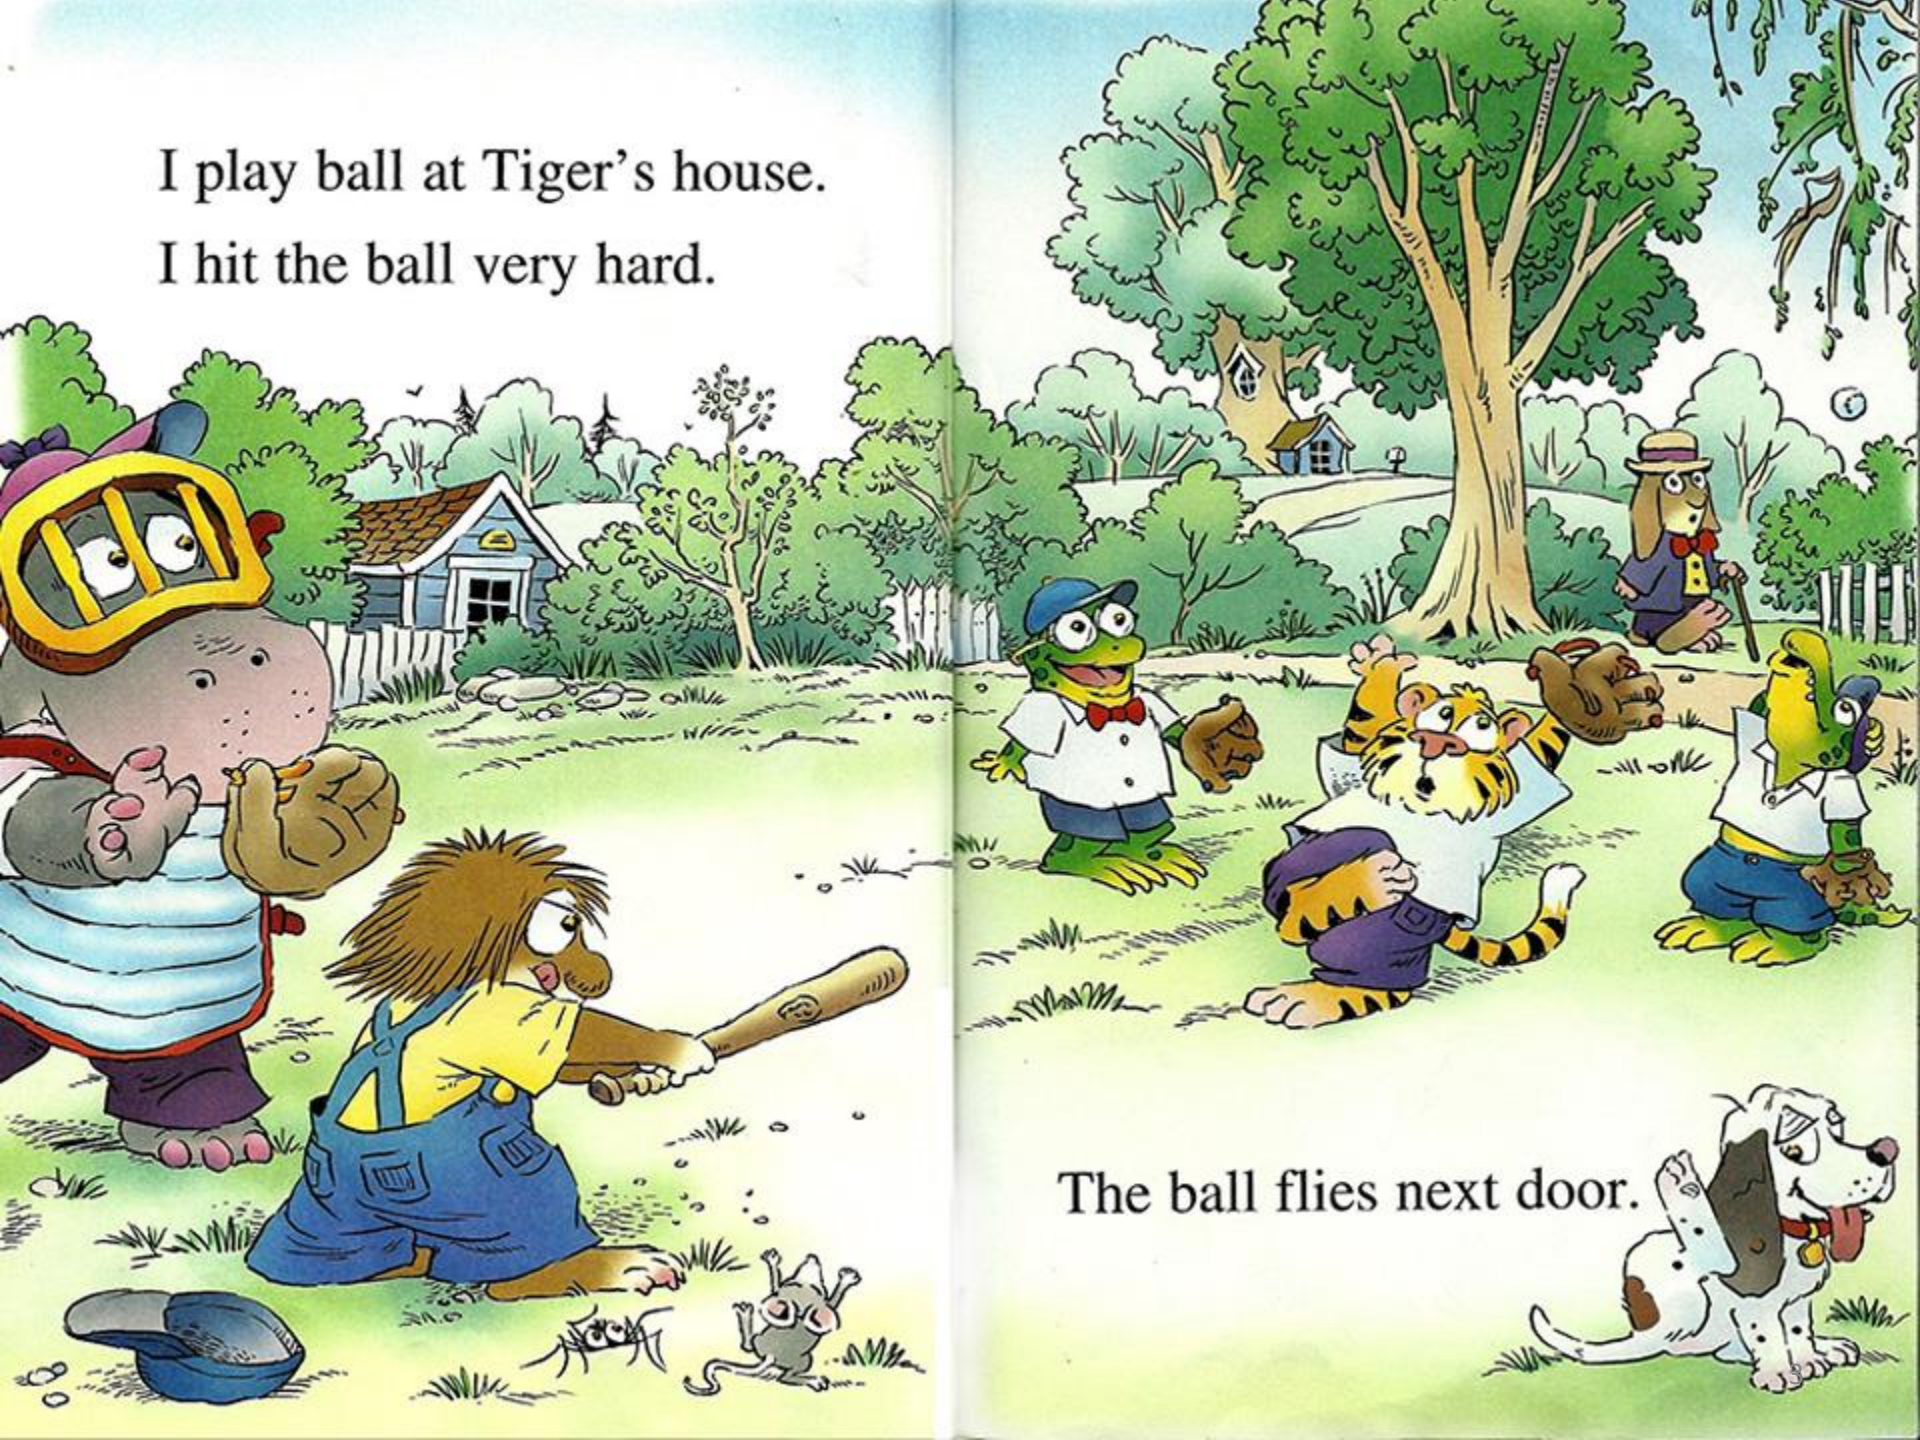
JUST CRITTERS WHO CARE

BY MERCER MAYER

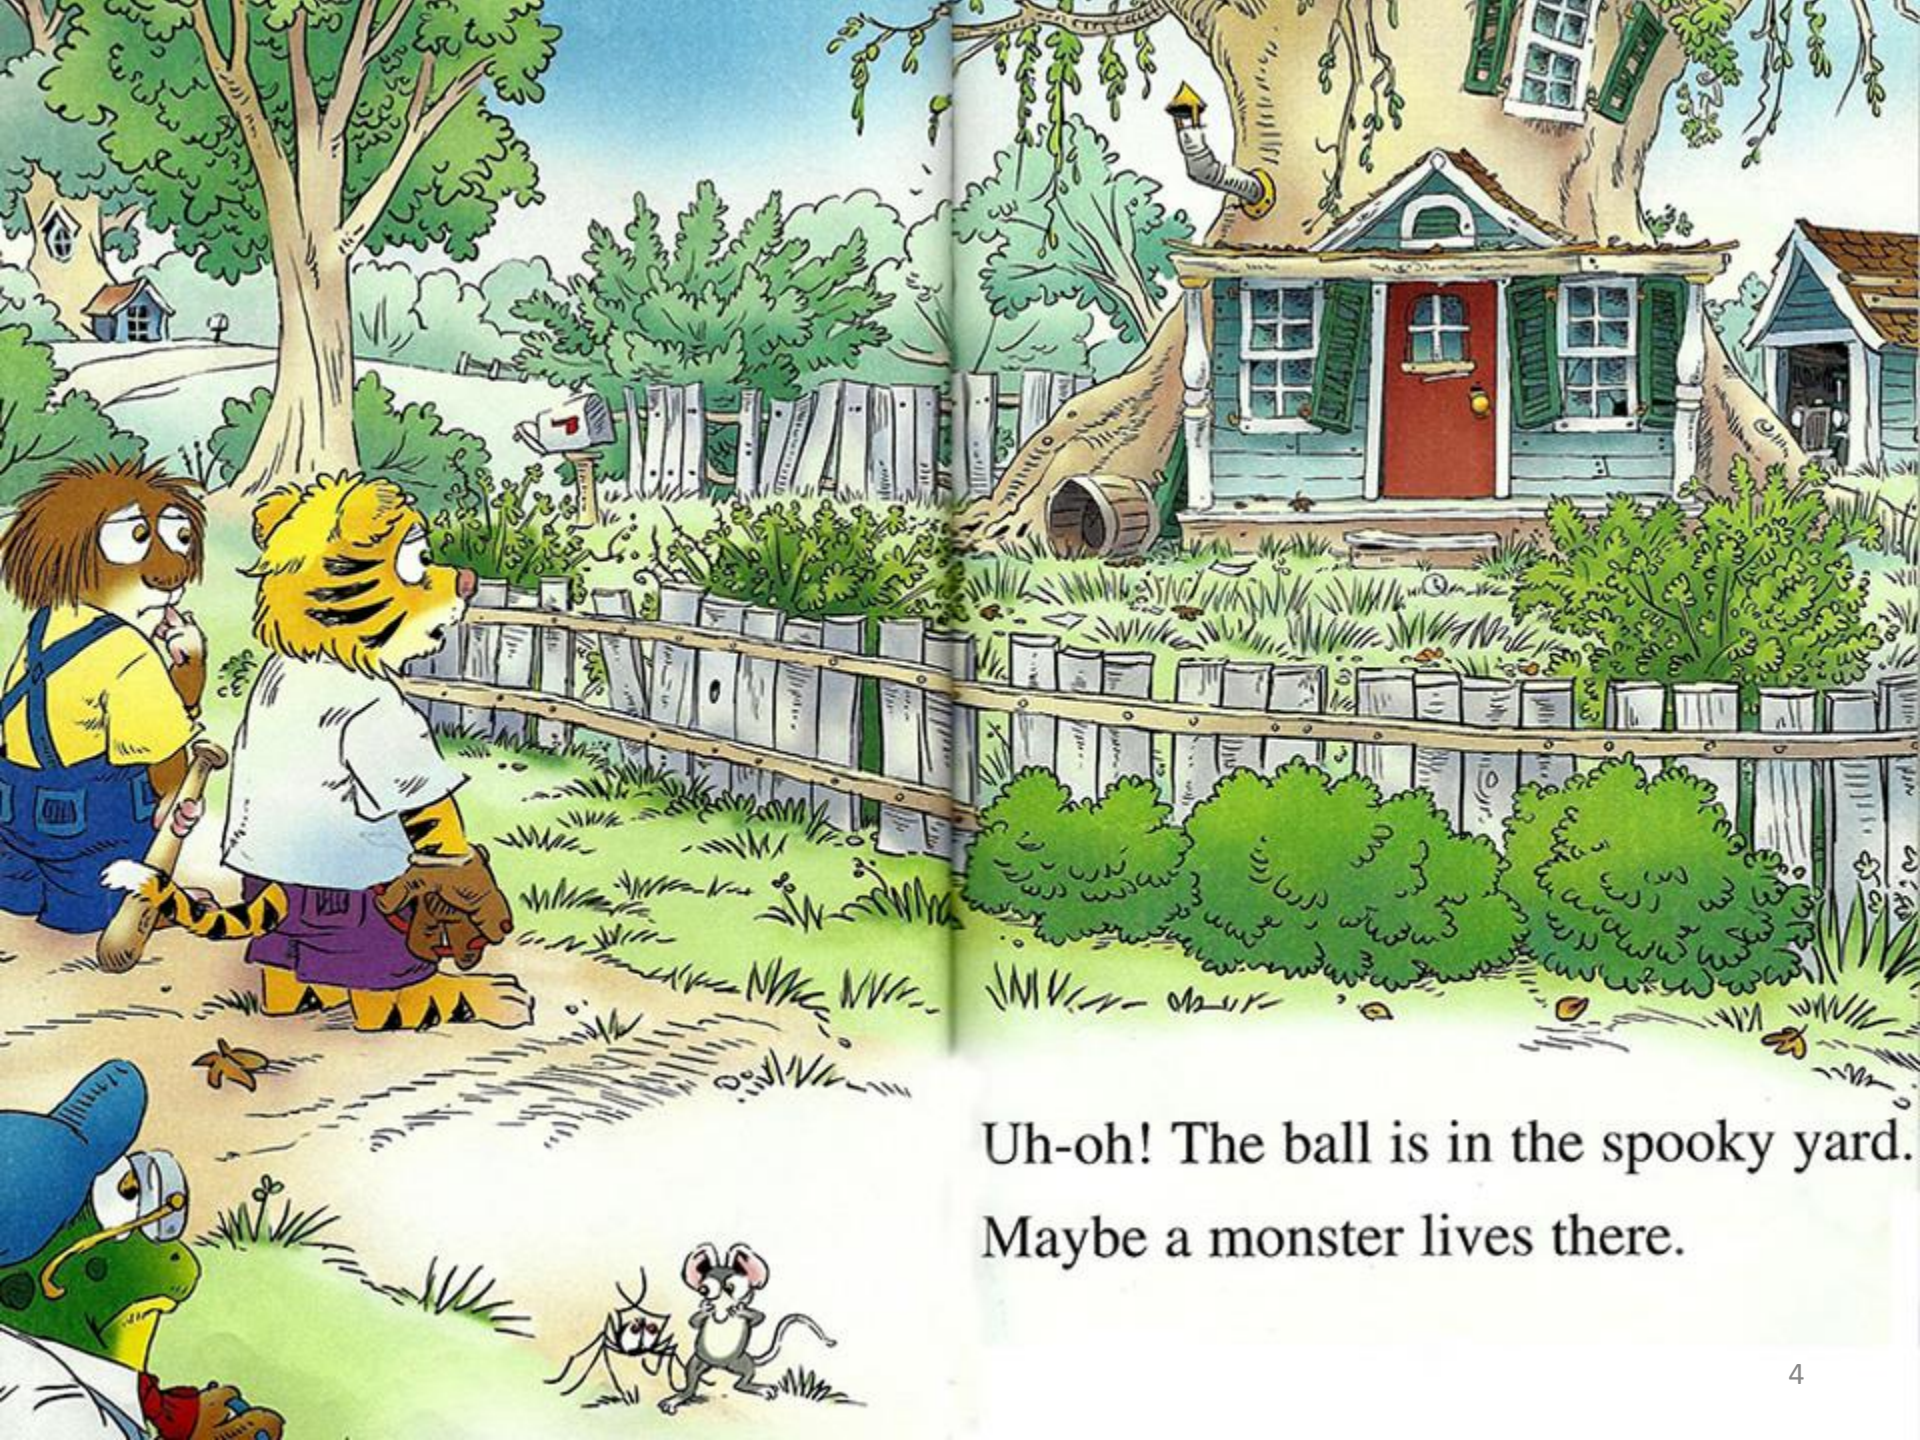
小毛人和朋友们在小老虎的家里打球，一不小心把球打飞了。咦？皮球飞到了一个恐怖的院子里，小毛人是勇敢的去院子里拿回来呢，还是害怕的逃跑了？让我们一起来看看~

I play ball at Tiger's house.

I hit the ball very hard.



The ball flies next door.



Uh-oh! The ball is in the spooky yard.

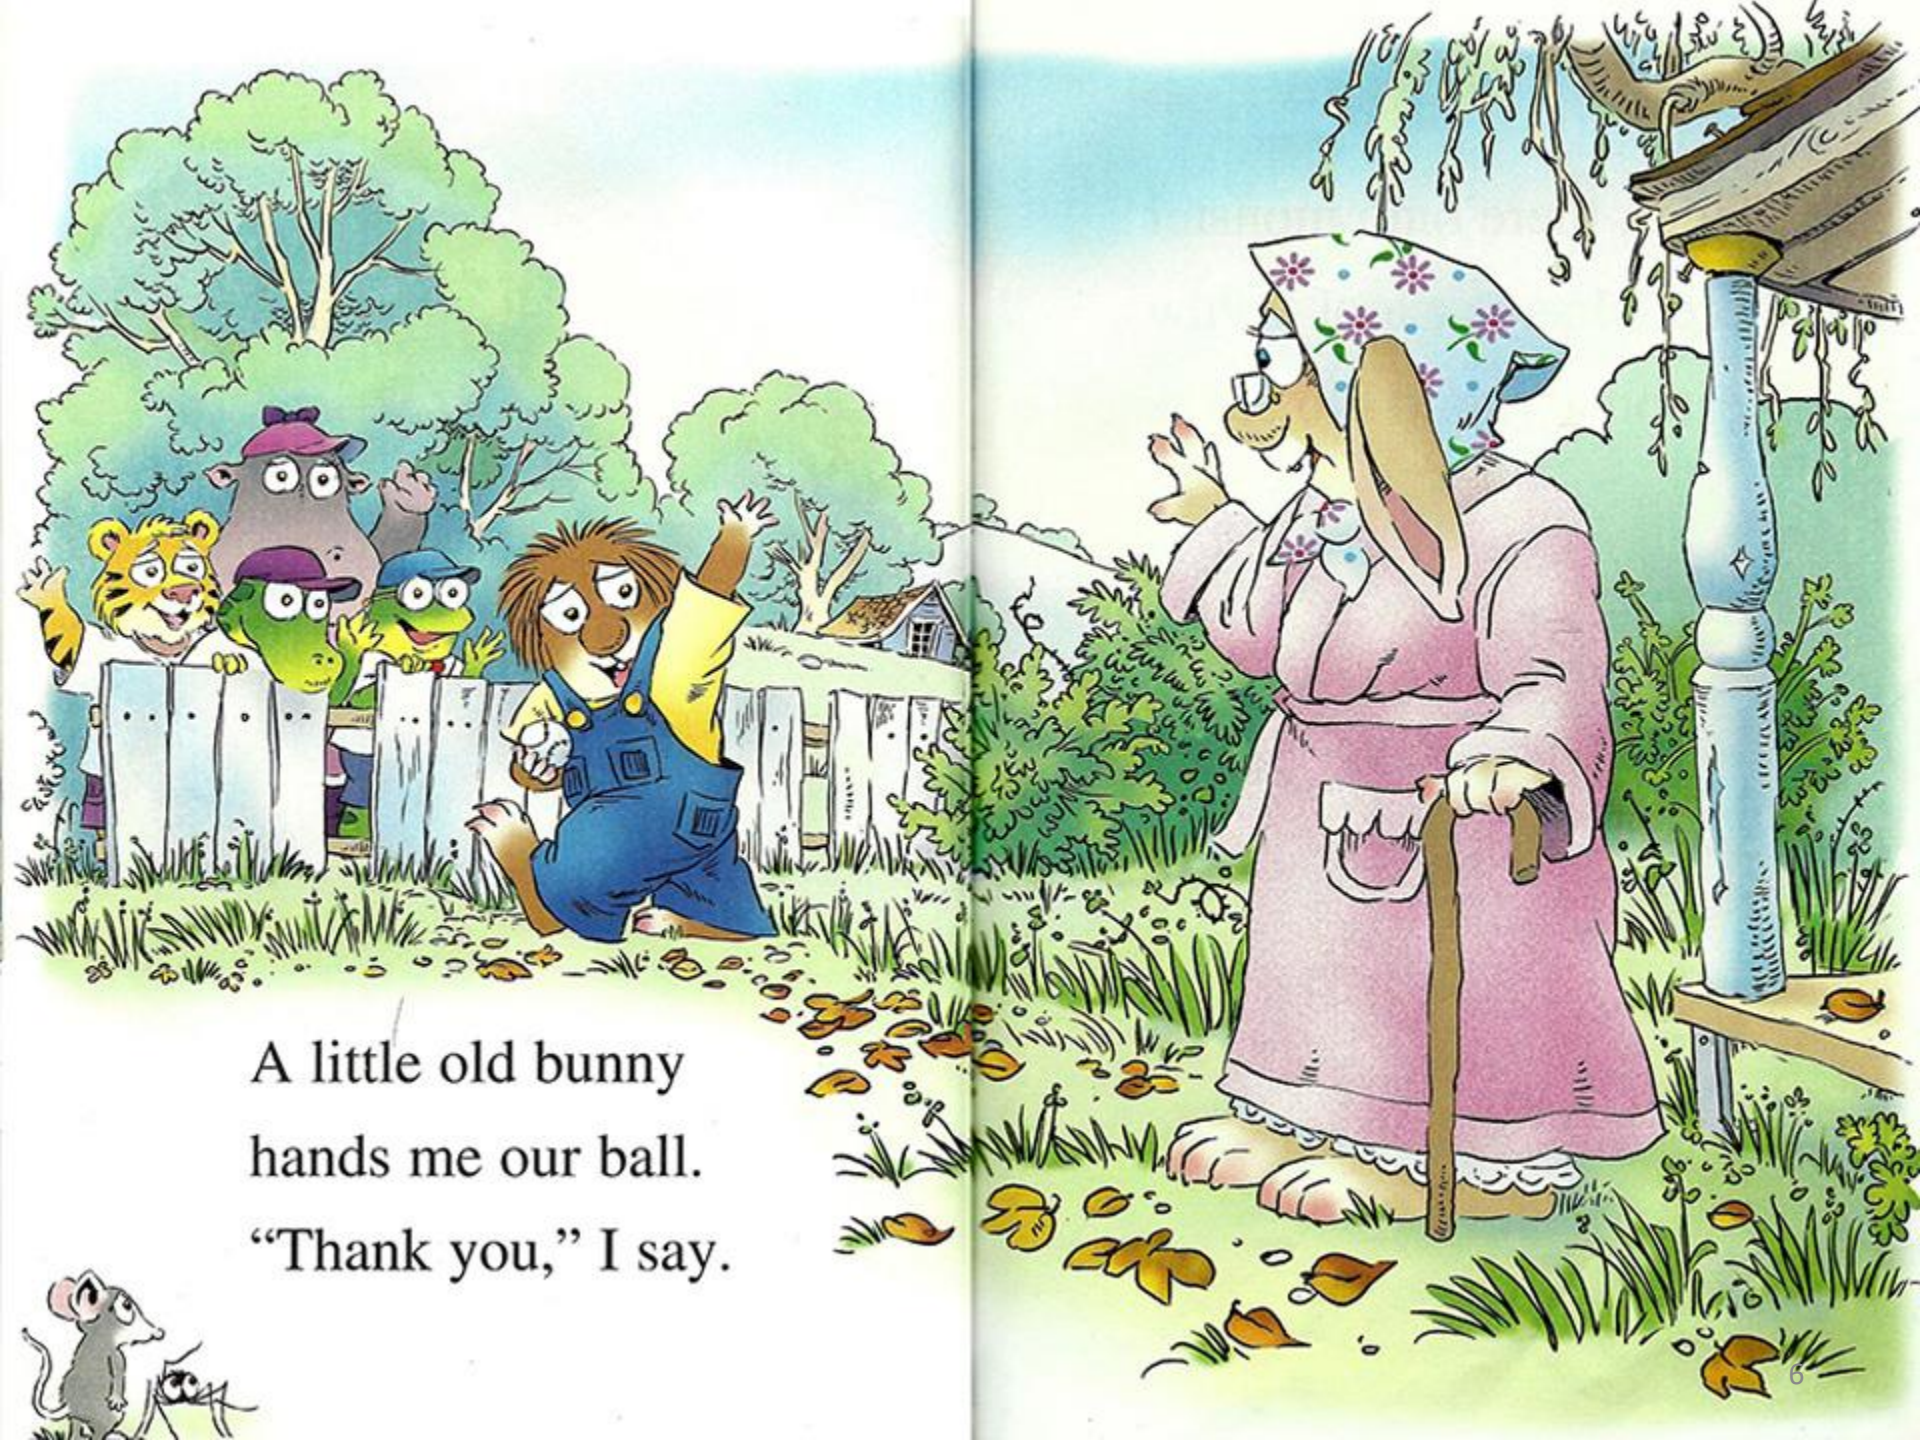
Maybe a monster lives there.

I am brave.

I will get the ball.

I run.

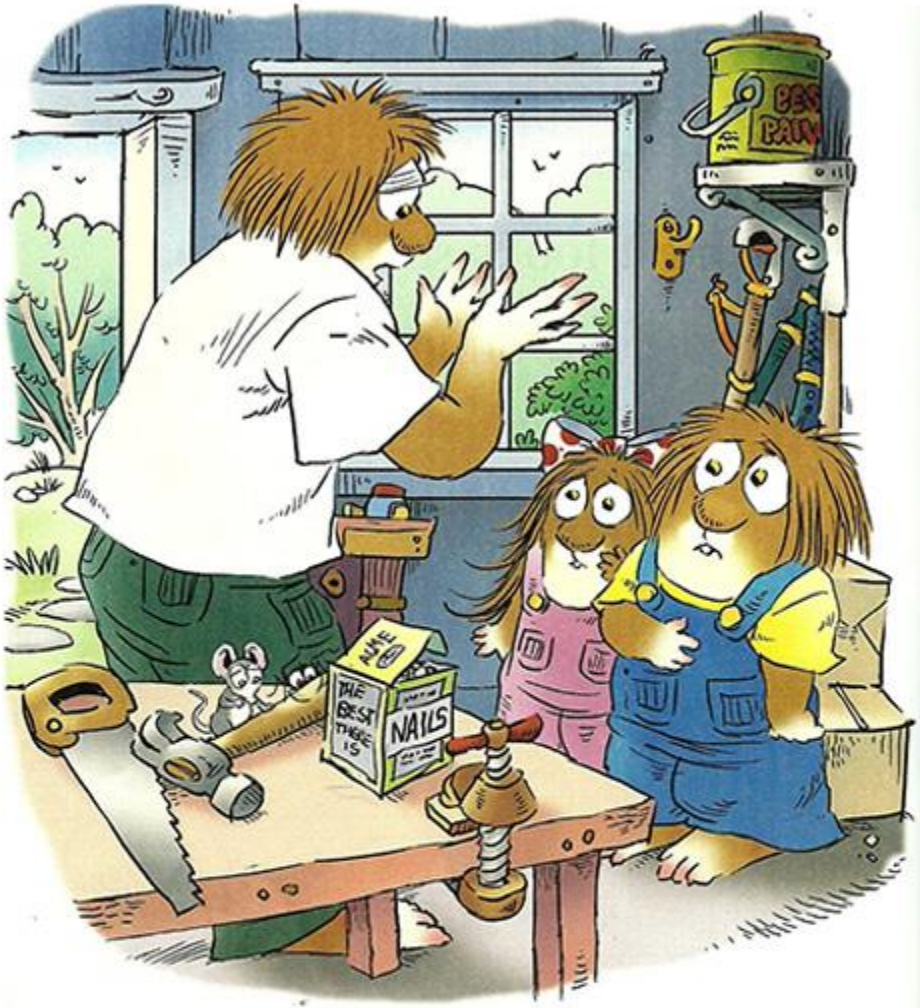
I trip and fall.



A little old bunny
hands me our ball.
"Thank you," I say.

"Tiger, there's no monster
there," I say.

I ask my dad
why it looks so spooky
at the old bunny's house.



"Mrs. Bunny is not feeling well.
She has no one to help her," Dad says.

"We can help Mrs. Bunny.
We are critters who care," I say.

I call my friends.

"What a great idea.

We will help, too," they say.

I make a picture for T-shirts.

Little Sister helps.

Dad gets them made.

Parents come, too.
We all walk to Mrs. Bunny's house.

We meet at my house.
Everyone wears a T-shirt.

I knock on the door.
Mrs. Bunny says, "Hello."
"We are Critters Who Care!

May we help you with your yard?" I ask.
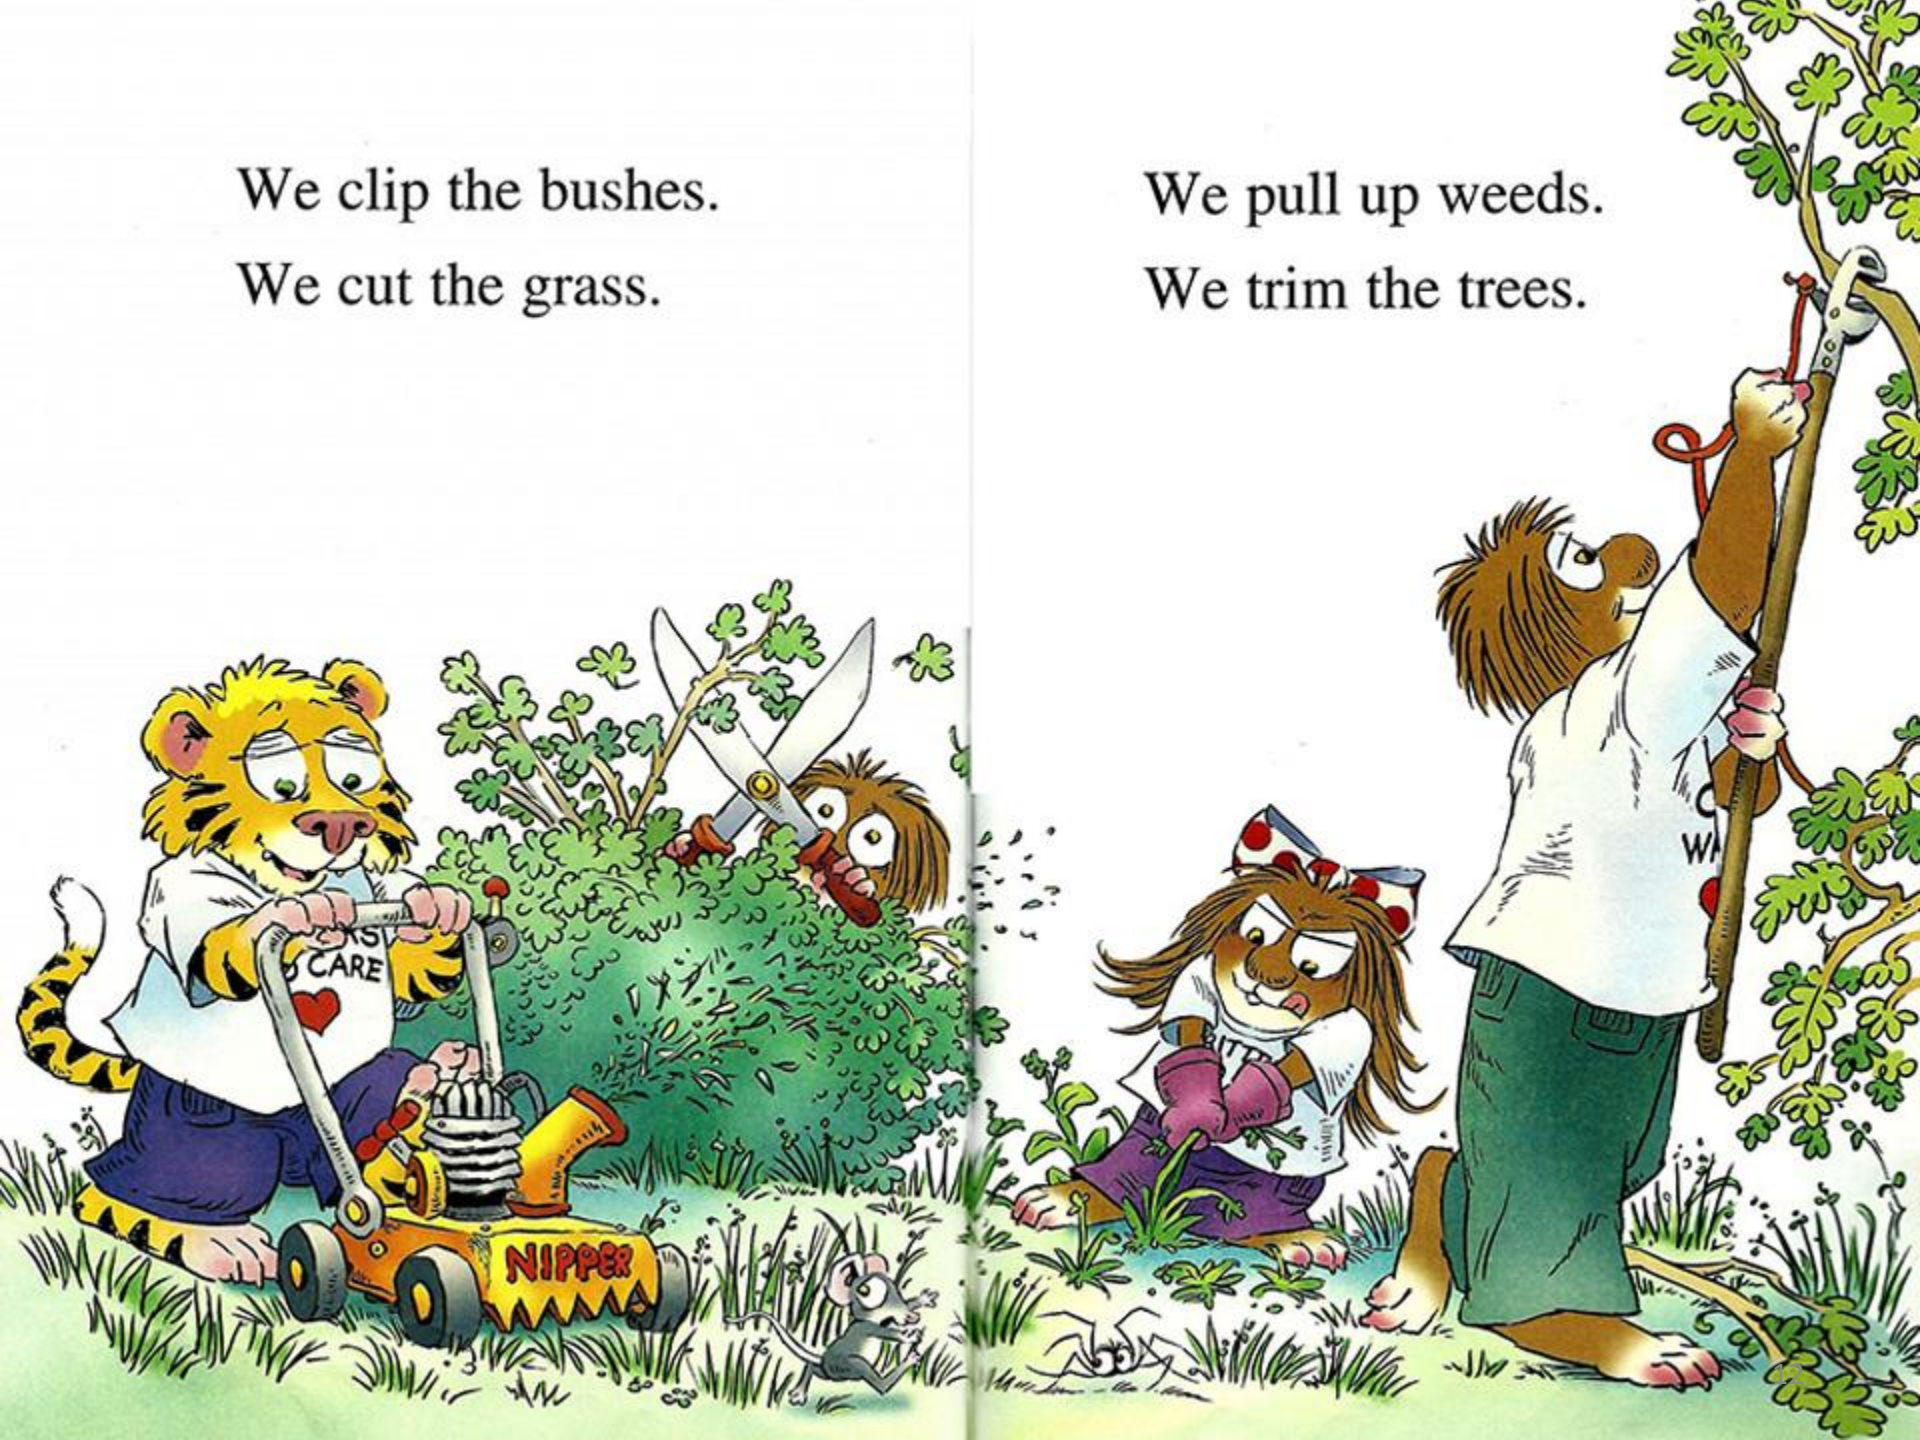
"Thank you," says Mrs. Bunny.

We clip the bushes.

We cut the grass.

We pull up weeds.

We trim the trees.



Dad fixes the porch step.

Tiger's dad fixes the shutter.

I blow away old leaves.

The house and yard look great!

Mrs. Bunny brings cookies and juice for all.
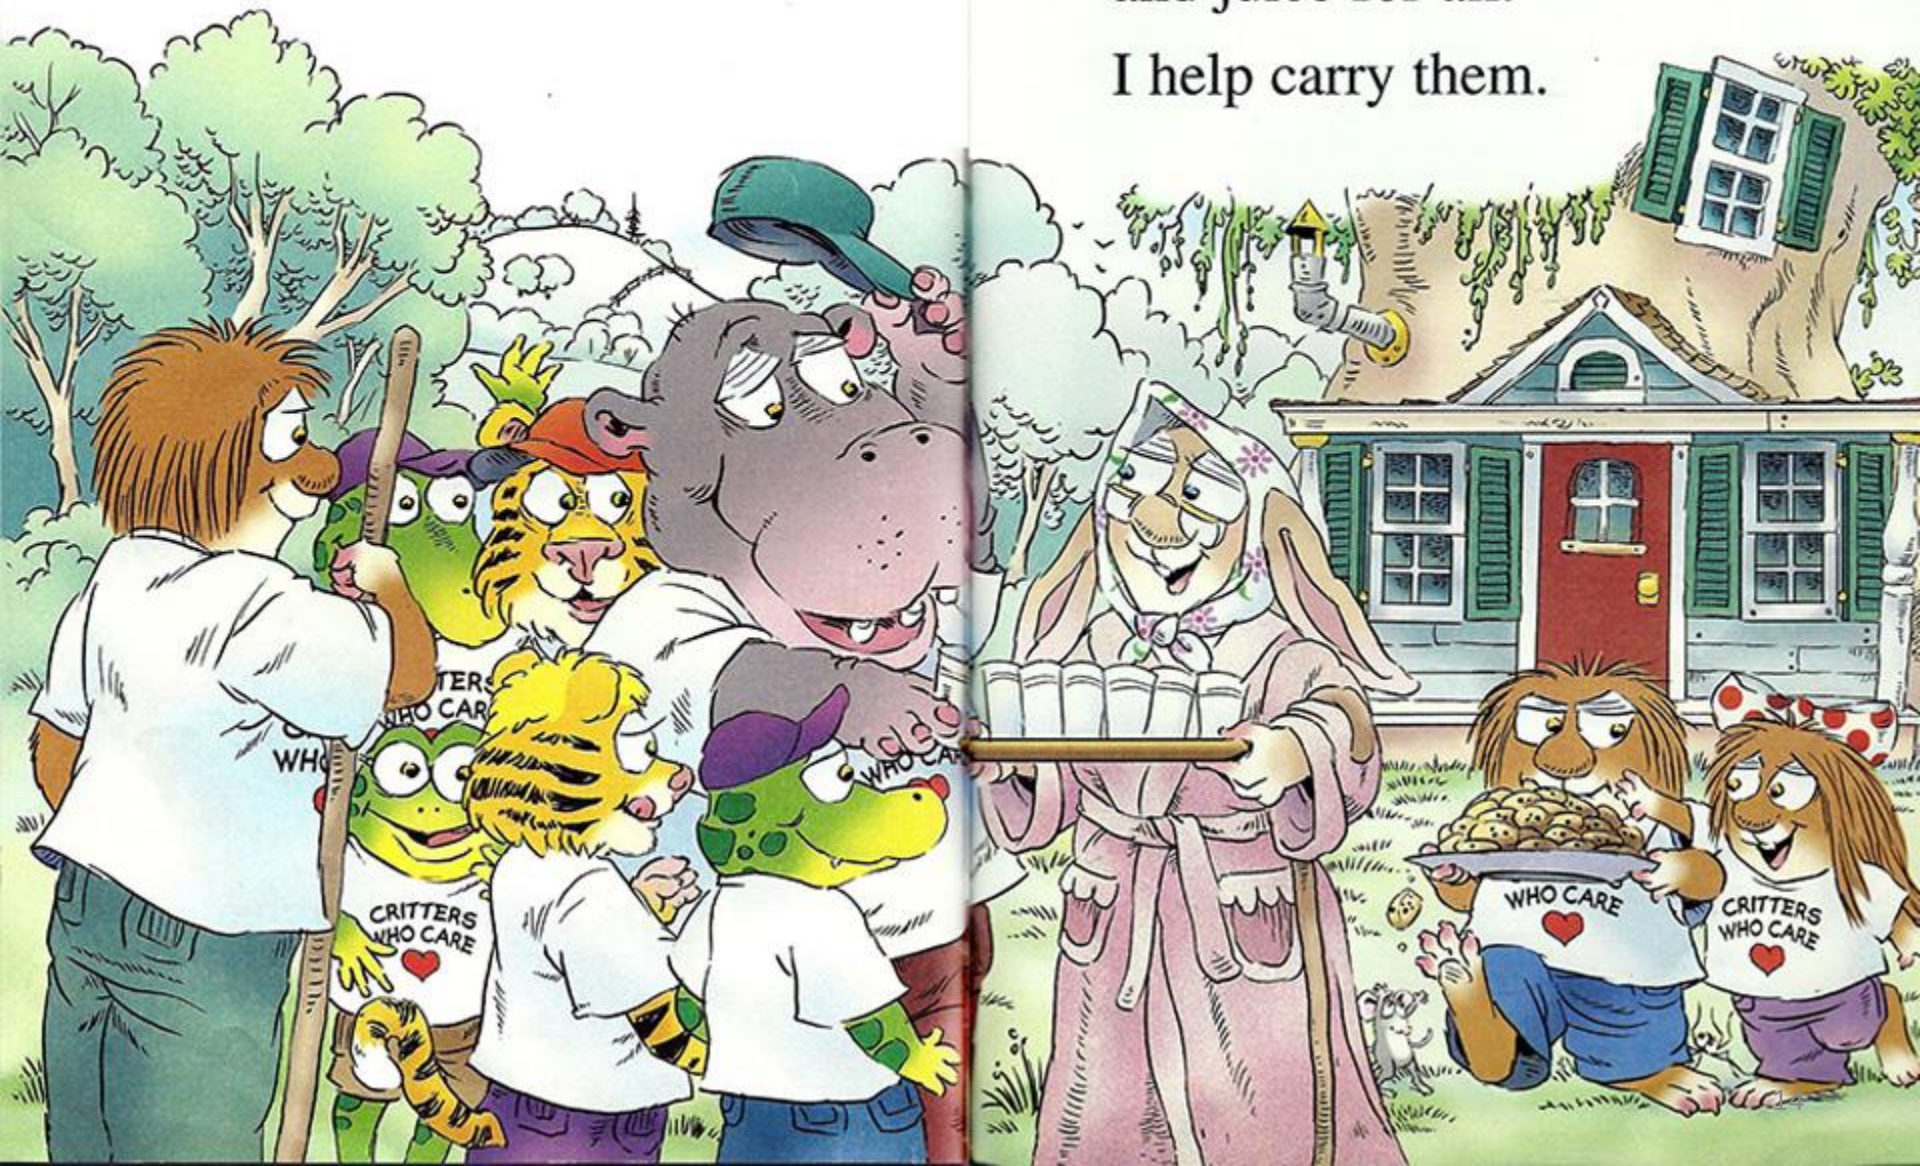
I help carry them.



We say good-bye.

"What should we do next?"

I ask.

Little Sister says, "We can get toys for kids who don't have any."

Everyone says, “Good idea!”
